Kabira: Why are you wearing a gomesi on a school day?

Neikesa: It is a cultural day at our school

Kabira: How do you do it at your school?

Neikesa: Children are grouped in their tribes and languages.

Kabira: You mean every one speaks in his or her language on that day?

Neikesa: Yes and we wear our traditional dresses.

Kabira: Wao! It must be interesting?

Neikesa: Very much, for example our dance is imbalu and kamabeka.

Kabira: What is your stable food?

Neikesa We eat Kamatoole and Kamaleya.

Kabira: I will visit you on your culture day next year.

God is good. He blesses parents with children. These children are either boys or girls. Both boys and girls are good children.

Boy children should be strong and hard working. They have to fetch water, split firewood and graze goats upon the hill.

Girl children should be humble and listening. They should help with cooking, washing, ironing and taking care of youngones.

So be happy of being a boy or a girl.

I really do harm

Especially to those who are careless.

I destroy you completely.

I am serious

I fight your white blood cells.

I make you very week and very fast.

How thin you become.

And they say you are slimmy

I cause many diseases to you

If not treated early as possible

I will kill you so soon

I have no mercy
