THE BLACK BEAUTY QUEEN

Last year in April, twenty girls took part in a beauty contest. The beauty contest took place at Kyobe Institute. Regina, our elder sister was one of the twenty girls. She was a very beautiful girl. She had a black skin colour. Apart from this, Regina was also clever and smart. Regina was asked to take part in this beauty contest by her friends. They always called her the "Black Beauty Queen" because of her beautiful, black skin colour.

On the day of the contest, very many people came to attend. The contest began at 2:00 p.m. The judges looked at the beauty, size, age and nationality of the girls. All the twenty girls were very beautiful so it was very difficult for the judges to choose the winner.

After careful judgement, the judges started reading out the results at 6:00p.m. At this moment every girl hoped to win the best prize which was a car.

The announcer started with the contestant in the last position. He said, "The contestant in the 20th position is Regggggg....., Reggggg....." On hearing this, Regina closed her eyes and covered her face. But after a minute of silence, the announcer said the full name as "Regious" This girl had a name almost similar to that of Regina but thank God it wasn't Regina.

Announcing of the results went on for almost an hour. And when they finally announced Regina as the winner, we could not believe it. All of us jumped off our seats shouting with joy. Regina was then crowned as Miss Kyobe and handed over the new car.

The Strong Man

Once upon a time, there was a village called Bugembe. This village had strong men and women in the whole country. Some men were strong because they were wise. Every child knew that Bugembe was full of strong men and women. "Nobody can fight us!" and Mbiire, a man from Bugembe.

There was a chief in Bugembe. The chief was called Kitonto. Chief Kitonto was rich. He had many cows. He had big, brown and black cows. Chief Kitonto liked all his animals and his people. All the animals were fat and healthy and gave a lot of milk every day. All the people in the village liked Chief Kitonto. He gave them free milk everyday. The children in the village looked healthy. The people liked Chief Kitonto because he cared for their children.

One day, something bad happened. The cow which Chief Kitonto liked went missing. The cow was called Rugaaju. Rugaaju was the oldest cow in the kraal and the whole village. When the Chief got to know that Rugaaju was missing he sent his servants to look for Rugaaju. Nobody found Rugaaju anywhere. Nobody found Rugaaju anywhere in the village. the chief sent strong men to all villages to look for Rugaaju. Chief Kitonto promised to give a big reward to the person who would find Rugaaju alive. The chief was also ready to do anything else that the person wanted.

When Rugaaju ran out of the kraal, it lost its way back to the kraal. Rugaaju went to Mufumba village. Rugaaju destroyed Magezi's crops. Magezi got announced and locked up in his kraal. After a few days, Magezi heard of the reward promised by the chief of Bugembe.

Magezi set a trick. He said that the owner of the cow must cut down the old and biggest tree in Mufumba village.

Chief Kitonto also got the news that Magezi of Mufumba village found his cow. The chief travelled to Mufumba village at once. Many people came from far and near to see the strongest man from Bugembe village.

When Kitonto arrived in Mufumba village, nobody could believe their eyes. Chief Kitonto was a small man. Chief Kitonto said to the people, "Rugaaju is the oldest cow in my village. Rugaaju does a lot of good things in our community. That is why we want him alive." Chief Kitonto then turned to Magezi and asked, "How many times have the leaves of this tree cured people's diseases? Where do the birds live? Now Magezi, give me five good reasons why I should cut down the biggest and oldest tree in your compound."

Magezi who was known to be the wisest man in Mufumba village and could not answer any of the questions. The people understood why the strongest man in Bugembe village was Chief Kitonto. Magezi handed over Rugaaju and said, "Go in peace. Now we know that your people are strong because they have a wise and clever leader."

Ahabwe : Hello Nyanjura. Where did you go over the weekend?

Nyanjura : We visited Lake Mburo National Game Park.

I went with my elder brother and younger sister. We paid only one thousand shillings at the gate. The gatekeeper was a very old man. He was older than my grandfather.

Ahabwe : What did you see in the national park?

Nyanjura : We saw giraffes, baboons, kobs, crested cranes, peacocks and lions. Lions are very fierce animals. They have long and pointed teeth. Lions are very strong. We saw a lion killing a kob and tearing its skin.

Ahabwe : I think the lion is the strongest animal in the national park.

Nyanjura : May be not. Our tour guide told us that a giraffe can kill a lion by kicking it. The giraffe is a tall and strong animal too.

Ahabwe : I saw an Ostrich at the zoo. Is a giraffe taller than an ostrich?

BIRUNGI AND THE STRANGER

Yesterday as I was going back home from school at 3:30p.m. I met a beautiful, tall lady. She was from Britain and it was her first time to visit Uganda. She was going to St. Agnes Girls' Boarding School but did not know where it was. This lady could not be helped by the people around because they did not know her language.

When she saw me in the school uniform, she called me and said, "Young girl, I am looking for St. Agnes Girls' Boarding school, Do you know where it is?" "Yes, madam, St. Agnes is my former school but it is far from here." I replied. "How far is it from here?" the lady asked. I told her that it was about fifteen kilometers from where we were.

"Could you please give me the directions to that place?" " Yes, I can." I told her to board a vehicle to Zenge trading station. At the station she was to get off the vehicle and move on up to the first junction. While at the junction I told her to take the road on her left and follow it up to the big church.

There she would see St. Agnes Girls' Boarding School just opposite the church.

One Time Good Friends

Once upon a time, there lived a man called Muheru. Mr. Muheru had a wife. They lived together on an island. On the island, there were some animals as well. There were rats, snakes and many other types of animals. When Mr. Muheru built a big house, many animals asked him for a place to sleep. It was a rainy season.

Mr. Muheru allowed birds, lizards, goats, goats, cows, cats, dogs, ducks, chicken and donkeys to sleep in the house. The animals were happy and worked together. Soon the animals became used to Mr. Muheru. Some animals entered the house without his permission.

Many of the animals started behaving badly. They refused to clean the house. This annoyed Mr. Muheru.

"You are no longer good to stay with," he said.

One of the snakes put up his tail and answered rudely, "This is not our house. We only come to sleep."

This annoyed Mr. Muheru. He shouted at all the animals. The snake also got very annoyed. In anger, one of the snakes bit Mrs. Muheru. She died.

At the burial of Mrs. Muheru, Mr. Rat complained about the snake's behaviour. The snake got very annoyed again but kept quiet. On the way home, the snake ate Mr. Rat.

When the animals reached home, they called a meeting for all animals. All the animals blamed the snake.

"You are very bad," said the duck, the cow and the sheep.

Mr. Muheru then said, "All snakes must leave my house."

This time the snake waited for Mr. Muheru to fall asleep. It bit him. Mr. Muheru died.

Mr. Goat said, "We shall not live in this house any more. There will not be any food for us to eat!"

Soon after the next heavy rains, the house fell down. All the animals went away. Today, we do not sleep in the same house with some animals because of their bad behavior.

MUSEGE THE BAD BOY

Long ago, there live a giant and his wife in a thick forest. All parents feared this giant and told their children not to go to that forest. Musege was a bad boy. He never listened to his parents at all.

One day, he went to the forest. That day he woke up early, put on his uniform and picked his bag.

When Musege reached the junction, he went straight into the forest and started looking for the giant. Deep in the forest, he heard a loud voice saying, "Stop! what are you looking for my forest?"

Musege was very scared. He tried to run away but the giant got his hand and said, "Today you are going to be my supper."

Quickly, the giant led Musege to his home. He told his wife Dingi Dingi to boil water and cook Musege for supper. Dingi Dingi was kind. She did not want to kill Musege. She came up with a plan. After boiling the water, she prepared some tea for her husband. She put some sleeping herbs in that tea and when the giant drank it, he fell into a deep sleep.

Dingi Dingi went and united Musege. She led him up to the main road and told him to run away as fast as he could. She also told him never to go back in that forest.

Musege thanked Dingi Dingi and started on his journey back home. All the neighbours and relatives who thought that Musege had been kidnapped and sacrificed by witch doctors, were very surprised when they saw him arriving at mid night.
