Item 1

Scenario

In a Bible study group, students are discussing how leadership disputes and doctrinal disagreements in the Early Church, such as the conflict between Paul and Peter in Antioch, affected unity and mission. Some members argue that the Church today still struggles with similar leadership and doctrinal divisions.

Task

As a Christian leader in your school, suggest how lessons from the Early Church can be used to resolve leadership conflicts in the Church today.

Item 2

Scenario

A local pastor has been criticized for preaching a prosperity gospel, claiming that true faith always leads to material wealth. Some Christians in the community are confused about how to balance wealth with Christian values, especially when many live in poverty.

Task

As a Divinity student, explain how Christian teachings on wealth and poverty can guide believers to live responsibly in today's society.

Always live a simple life!
