A highly skilled teenage athlete, Steven Kiprotich made his debut at the 2006 world cross country championships in Fukuoka Japan. Competing in the U20 race at a windswept seaside park, he finished a respectable 24th and fourth counter for Uganda. He had managed to be in the first position for a good distance from the start.

Muwaya and John, the residents of Nakwaya had gained interest in supporting the teenager in his debut. They lost morale after seeing him losing the morale a short distance to the final mark. While leaving the casino, Muwaya and John urged;

Muwaya; I hate African culture.

John; Why?

Muwaya; In Africa, mostly Northern Uganda, they are so jealousy. They even bewitch.

John; That's only here in central.

Muwaya; May be central residents never wished a Northerner to win the gold medal.

John; Be serious my friend, you may find out that Kiprotich just bragged and finally lost focus and then overtaken.

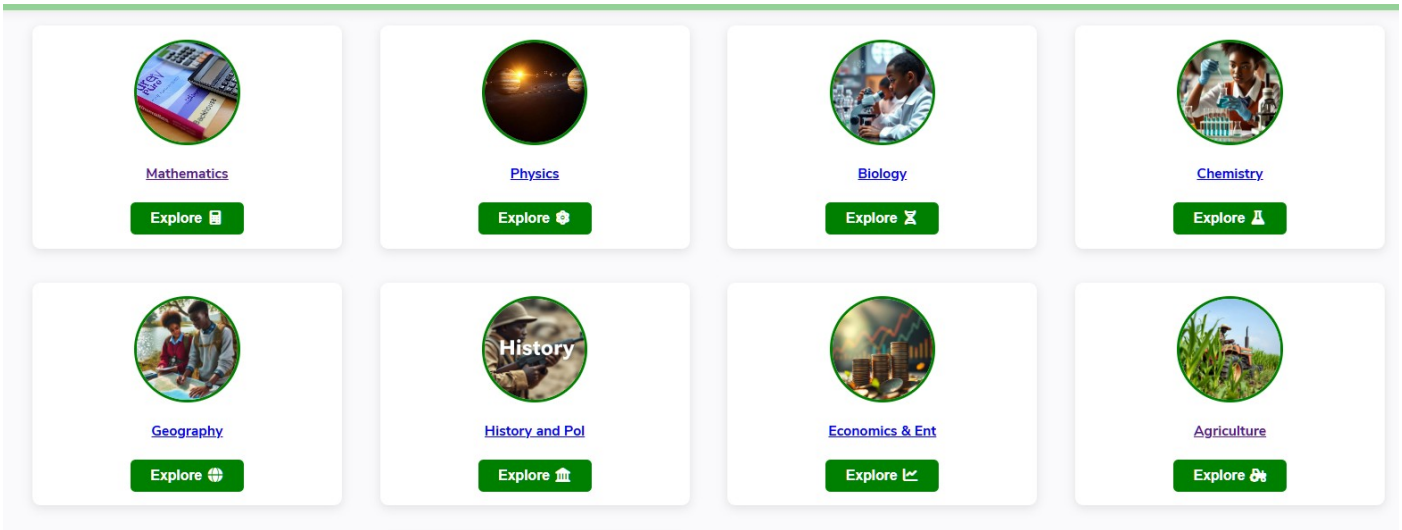

Muwaya; In fact I've wasted my time watching my favourite not knowing that you people from Ntwentwe would bewitch him. You may even be among.

John; Better shift to women football if you are weak hearted, silly.

"My body didn't respond well to training when we went for the World championships but wait next year, I'm going for Gold," Kiprotich stated (http://www.newvision.co.ug/new-vision/news/140947/gold-rio-Kiprotich).

As a senior 3 student who knew about Muwaya and John's reasons for abandoning their favourite athlete and friendship and as one who followed up his(Kiprotich) post game statement, write a letter explaining the root cause of Kiprotich's failure backing him up and clearly showing John that even where he was pushing his colleague, they are moreorless similar.
