Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each.

51. Read the poem below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

That big bungalow
On a hilly ground it stands
Surrounded by tall trees
Just close to the village square
Is our new home.

A rectangular house
In a quiet village corner
Along Tasha Road
Behind the chief's residence
Is our nice home.

On a large piece of land
Opposite the church building
After Mike's hut
Very easy to locate
Is our village.

54. Read the passage below carefully and then, in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

I usually celebrate my birthday in the city. This time I plan to celebrate it in the village with my village friends. I have already asked my aunt Ms. Baker to bake my birthday cake.

My father has assured me that he will buy me a new birthday dress this weekend. When my cake is ready, we shall travel with it to Amudat, my village on Friday. I have sent invitations to my friends including Milly, my best friend. I hope she will accept to travel with me to Amudat.

When we reach Amudat, we shall start the preparations for my birthday. Milly is very good at decorating, she will surely do that for me. On Saturday, I will celebrate my ninth birthday with my friends around me. I expect them to sing for me as I cut my cake happily. I am already excited about the day.

After the celebrations, I shall go and attend a thanks giving ceremony on Sunday. I will get chance to meet Rev. Joseph Okot at Saints Church, Amudat. He will pray for me and bless me as well. On Monday, I will go and check on our garden in the village. I will do some farm work like harvesting vegetables which we shall carry to the city.

Finally, we plan to travel back to Kampala on Tuesday. May God bless my day.
