SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each.

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences the questions that follow.

A menu is a book that contains different names of food items and their prices indicated. Both names of local and international food stuffs are included in the book. It is always placed on the table or at the reception for easy access. However, some big hotels like Hotel Africana have their menu electronically projected on the walls and boards for purposes of wide-coverage advertisement.

Nowadays, one can easily place their order minus opening the menu due to introduction of digitalized menu in these hotels.

Additionally, for customers who don't know how to read, waitresses and waiters have been employed to attend to their different preferences.
