Dear Aunt Hushnah,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to tell you that I am not fine at all. This is because my parents did not visit me on the visiting day, despite the fact I have been sick for two weeks. I have malaria and stomachache.

Whenever I call my parents using my class teacher's phone, the call doesn't go through. I have even tried to send a letter to them through Jovia my classmate who is a day pupil, but I have not got any reply.

Mr. Uthman Wangira, our director of studies, has advised me to write to one responsible relative to come and take me to the hospital.

Aunt Hushnah, please come and take me to Henro Hospital. I need to be tested and treated well.

I will be grateful with all your assistance.

Your niece,
Christine.

Questions.

- a) Who sent the above letter?
- b) Where is the writer?
- c) On which date was the letter written?
- d) Who was the addressee?
