My name is Namutu and I stay in Kitata, Kamuli Municipality. It was a Saturday when I went to a restaurant for the first time. My mother had always promised to take me there but could sometimes become too busy to fulfill the promise. My friends as school used to tell me about restaurants but could not imagine what they looked like. It was a one Saturday morning that we left home to have our lunch at Café Javas Restaurant. I was very pleased for the offer.

When we reached the restaurant, there were many clients having meals too. We also sat at one of the tables that was vacant.

No sooner had we sat than a beautiful and smartly dressed girl came and greeted us. She was one of the waitresses at that restaurant. She was one of the waitresses at that restaurant. She gave us a menu and we made our orders in a few moments, our orders were brought. We enjoyed the meal and after the waitress came back and brought us a bill. My mother gave a fifty thousand shillings note to the waitress and she took it to the cashier. The cashier gave her a receipt and change of five thousand shillings.

We then walked out of the restaurant and travelled back home. I kept on remembering the memories we had while there and the meal we ate because it was very delicious.
