BUILDING THE VILLAGE HEALTH CENTRE

Mpere village did not have a health centre until Mr. Kutu came and built a home in the village. People used to go to the next village to get treatment from Mpengu Hospital which is 15km from Mpere village.

When Mr. Kutu settled in the village, he asked the people to come together and build a health centre for the village. The people welcomed the idea and started on the work. Some collected stones, others made clay bricks while the boys in the village were told to dig sand in the village below and carry is to the place where the health centre was to be built. The land where the health centre was built was given by Mr. Luto. Mr. Kutu gave 100 bags of cement and Mr. and Mrs. Kalo donated one million shillings. The money was used to pay the workers who built the health centre.

The work of building the health centre started in May and was completed in four months. The chairperson L.C.V came and opened the health centre. The people in the village were happy for the achievement.
