MY FIRST TIME AT THE BANK

My first time at the bank was at the beginning of first term. I was in Primary Five. Barely ten years of age, my father filled the school bank pay-in-slip and told me to go and deposit my school fees in Diamond Trust Bank in Lira City.

When I reached the bank, I went to the customer care desk, therefore she advised me to join the queue. I did as she had told me. However, the queue could hardly move, it was like a fleet of vehicles stuck in the traffic jam.

After standing for an hour in the queue, I finally succeeded in getting to the counter where the cashier was. She received my school bank pay-in-slips, checked, signed and stamped them. After a short time, the cashier called out my name and handed to me the parent's copy and the school pay. She remained with the bank copy, waved and said good bye to me.

I kept two copies of the school bank pay-in-slips in my school bag and went to school. Immediately I reached school, I gave the copy to the bursar. She then made a receipt and clearance card for me.

54. Read the poem below carefully and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Domestic animals, a gift from our maker,
On them we depend for food and for fun,
Milk and meat for man's proper growth,
And the priceless manure that makes our soils fertile.

The woolen coats, a gift from sheep,
But all this is shepherd will forget
As he reaches for the machete to dock the tail
To create enternal pain on the innocent lamb.

The innocent rabbits together with their kittens
Bring fulfilment to the young and old
But heartless man will forget this gem
As he denies them food right in his garden.

The cocks that crow to tell us to ruse
And the geese that honk to warn us of danger
Are nearing extinction due to man's greed
Feasting on their eggs like there is no tomorrow.
