SECTION B

51. Read the passage below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions that follow.

Last year in third term, primary four, five and six my class, visited a carpentry workshop at Nsambya in Kampala. This visit was meant to help learn more about carpentry which we had learnt in term two in the topic occupations.

When we arrived at the carpentry workshop, we were received by a middle aged man who introduced himself as Lutalo David, the marketing manager of Kapande Furniture Masters. He thanked our teachers for choosing to visit their carpentry workshop among others in the locality.

Before taking us round the workshop, he took us through the do's and don'ts while at the carpentry workshop. He said that we needed to be very careful because there were sharp and dangerous tools at the workshop which could pose a danger to whoever could not take care.

After guiding us, he asked us to line up into two files to move to where some tools were displayed such as drills, planes, saws, hammers, sandpaper among others. We also saw some of the furniture they made like sofas, beds, tables, office chairs, in the display room.

As we were getting out of the show room, we found some of their clients buying saw dust. He said that saw dust was on a high demand because most clients wanted it as a bedding for animals and fertilizers too.

Before we left the workshop, our head boy thanked Mr. Lutalo for being so welcoming and clear in his explanation. We then left and reached school at exactly one o'clock in the afternoon.

Questions:

54. Read the poem below carefully and then answer in full sentences the questions that follow.

I've been buried
Several times
My stem is cut
Into small pieces
And buried into shallow graves

Two feet apart
My body parts are placed
To cover a length and a width of a field
In a week's time, I rise from the dead
With my delicate leaves bending for the wind to pass

My stem growing straight into space My feet sweat where I was buried Good news to them, the farmers As they dig out my feet Peel, cut and boil them

With delicious sauce
My feet are eaten
With feet, the young chat and then eat
Chips, chips, chips
Delicious cassava chips!
