POSTAL SERVICES

Nakalema, a pupil of Kinaawa Primary School, went to the post office one day. She wanted to post her letter to her uncle in Canada but she did not know what to do. So, she went to the postmaster and asked him for some help.

The postmaster explained to her how she could send a letter by post. He told her to write an address on the envelope, put a stamp and take her letter to the weighing scale. He also told her that the cost of sending a letter depends on the weight.

After the explanation, Nakalema went to the counter where the clerk weighed her letter. She paid one thousand shillings to get the postage stamp and an animal sticker for the envelope. Nakalema successfully posted her letter and left the post office happily.
