SECTION B

51. Read the passage below and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

In our sub-country, there are two activities done every day. These are farming and business, most people are farmers. They grow different crops and rear chicken, goats and cattle. Men and women are both involved in the business. They sell different items including foodstuffs and animals' products from their farms.

Mr. Amooti is among the well-known businessmen in the area. He has the biggest shop. In his shop, there is a variety of items. Some are weighted in kilograms like sugar, maize four, rice, beans and groundnuts. Others are packed in bottles, tins or packets like juice, soda, water, shoe polish, salt and baking flour.

If anyone needed paraffin or cooking oil, these would be measured in litres. They are also measured in small quantities as a person may require. There is hardly anything a person may want for home use that is not in Mr. Amooti shop.

In order to serve his many customers well, Mr. Amooti has employed some workers to help him. They all serve with a smile. More so, items in his shop are cheaper compared to those from other shops. When children go to buy from his shop, he sometimes gives them sweets. It is a reward for choosing to buy from his shop.

He has the biggest number of customers in the area. He earns a lot of money too. Other shopkeepers have copied some of his ways in order to maintain their business.
