One day, he came back home when he was so tired that he forgot to close the door before sleeping. While in the sleep, he heard some noise in his room but he did not mind, taking it a dream.

The noise continued and he woke up. On waking up, he saw two men taking his property. This created fear in his heart and he started panicking. The two men were putting on black masks. They started running when they saw Dovic. Dovic made an alarm.

The neighbours came to his rescue very fast. Dovic then showed them where the thieves had passed. The neighbours followed the same path. Luckily, the thieves were captured from Oneyi's banana plantation as they were trying to hide. The chairman LC1 called the police to take away the thieves.

Before the police arrived, it had been found out that the thieves were their village mates who spent most of the time taking drugs.
