Theme-Based 3-Stage Instructional Guide for Primary Learners

Theme: Discovering God's Gift to Me
Duration: 40 Minutes
Subtheme: Discovering More of God's Gifts to Me
Target Group: Primary RE Classes
Lesson Title: How People in the Bible Had Their Needs Met

MEMORY VERSE

"My God will meet all your needs according to the riches of his glory in Christ Jesus." — Philippians 4:19

STAGE 1: Learners' Real-Life Experiences — 10 Mins

Objective: Help learners identify basic physical, emotional, and social needs in daily life.
Teacher & Learner Activities:

- Introductory Question: Ask learners: "What are some essential things you needed before coming to school today?" (e.g., breakfast, clean clothes, shelter, safety, parental love).
- Pair-Share: Have learners discuss with a partner a time they felt hungry, thirsty, or afraid, and who helped them during that time.
- Key Reflection: Conclude that God provides for us daily through our families, caregivers, teachers, and nature.

STAGE 2: God's Message from the Bible — 15 Mins

Objective: Explore scriptural accounts showing God's miraculous provision for His people.
Teacher & Learner Activities:

- Scripture Narrative: Narrate 1 Kings 17:1–6 (Elijah fed by ravens at Brook Cherith) or John 6:1–14 (Jesus feeding the 5,000 with five loaves and two fish).
- Key Teaching Point: Emphasize that God knows all our needs beforehand and has unlimited ways to meet them.
- Verse Recitation: Guide the class in reciting Philippians 4:19 with simple hand actions (pointing up for "God", holding out open palms for "meet all your needs").

STAGE 3: Learners' Response & Application — 15 Mins

Objective: Express gratitude to God and put love into action by sharing with others.
Teacher & Learner Activities:

- Silent Gratitude Prayer: Ask learners to bow their heads and thank God for three specific things He provided for them this week.
